

Regular meeting Academia Faculty
Jan. 25, 1916.

Meeting was called to order by Prof. Martin.
Absent, Prof. Shanklin; present late, Messrs
Bradley, Bramlett, Daniel, Poats, and Spears.

Prof. Johnstone suggested that injustice is sometimes done by the General Faculty in hastily considering student petitions and that good might be accomplished by having a committee of the General Faculty to consider these petitions beforehand. He also spoke of the neglect of class rooms by the janitor.
Discussion of these questions followed.

On motion of Prof. Poats, a resolution was passed recommending to the General Faculty that a committee be appointed to consider student petitions.

The chairman stated that he would make out a new schedule for the janitor with a view to getting better service.
